

LOCALS.

FIRE.—Qui Vive Coterie party, at the St. Charles hotel on Friday night, was attended by the elite of the city, and was the finest party of the season.

THE best dollar kid glove in the city at Stuart & Ghosh's. We have them in all the new shades, in one or two buttons.

STOCK YARD.—Chief Myers is bargaining with H. Watson Webb for two lots on the corner of Fifth street and Washington avenue for the purpose of starting a stock yard, an institution long needed here.

NEW FIRM.—The new firm of Linton & Orr has set its sails. It proposes to do a forwarding and commission and general warehouse business. N. Linton and S. M. Orr are five men; energetic, capable and reliable. We wish them success, and lots of it.

RELIGIOUS.—Rev. H. B. Thayer will deliver a discourse this morning, in the Presbyterian church, on "The Lessons of the Hour." In the evening he will deliver the second discourse to young men; subject: "Position, an index to moral worth."

THE SIDEWALKS.—McHale, Poor and Gorman have been inspecting the condemned sidewalks of the city and making estimates for their reconstruction and the construction of certain new ones. These gentlemen were appointed by the city council to do this duty, and finished the work yesterday.

LADIES' AND CHILDREN'S FURS AND UNDERWEAR.—Stuart & Ghosh respectfully call attention to their stock of winter furs, just received fresh from the hands of the manufacturer. Having deferred the purchase of these goods until the present time they can offer them at prices fully 25 per cent. less than September or October prices. They have many novelties to be found elsewhere. They also call attention to their large assortment of gents', ladies' and misses' underwear. They are making a specialty of this class of goods and have arranged their prices to merit the confidence and patronage of the cash trade.

THE HORSE DISASTER.—The epidemic which is rapidly abating in this city, and we may now look forward a few days and imagine ourselves enjoying all the privileges of street-car facilities, "bus lines," etc.,—luxuries which we have been deprived of for the week past. It is reported that the horses of the various car lines, omnibus companies, and in the delivery stables are improving rapidly and will be ready for duty in a very short time. In the barns of the People's Omnibus and Baggage Co., on Twenty-second street, there are 312 horses, but one of which number have been attacked by the distemper. The exception shows that "blood will tell," for he is a Kentucky thoroughbred, of the Gold Dust stock. There are no serious cases in this stable, and not a single animal has died. The company will not commence running their "buses" again before next Thursday or Friday, thus allowing the horses to completely recover before their use is again brought into service. There has been a number of horses died, not so much from the disease as from the fact that they were forced to work before they were sufficiently recovered to do hard work.

The president of the Illinois humane society has issued a circular informing all owners of horses that on and after Monday any person found working a horse that is suffering with the disease will be arrested. The disease among the horses has interested seriously with the business of the city. In some instances cattle have been brought into requisition, and it is not an unfrequent sight to see half a dozen men hauling a heavily laden wagon through the streets. Some of the larger firms of this city are delivering their goods by oxen. Messrs. Field, Lietz & Co., John V. Farwell & Co., Allen, Mackey & Co., and many other firms have their "bull express," and deliver goods in all parts of the city by them.

All the railroads are running extra trains for the accommodation of those people who live in the suburbs and do business in the city.

THE SUNDAY LIQUOR QUESTION.—The Sunday liquor question, so far as the great majority of the people are concerned, is of little concern. The city authorities have made an attempt to enforce the law, but that they have succeeded to any considerable extent does not seem apparent. At all events, there are as many whiskey soaked individuals to be seen on the streets as there were before any attempt was made to enforce the law. Some few saloon keepers who have disregarded orders, and kept open their places on Sunday, have been arrested and slight fines imposed. Some of the persons thus fined have paid the fines, while others have appealed to higher courts and propose to fight the matter to the bitter end.

MUST HANG.—Gregorio Peri, an Italian, was tried in the Cook county court, last April, on a charge of murdering two men in his saloon on October 9, 1871. He was found guilty and sentenced to be hanged in July. However, his attorneys, sought and obtained a stay of execution, in order to bring the case before the supreme court and endeavor to procure a new trial for their client. The case was brought before that body, at Ottawa, one day last week, but the court refused to grant a new trial. So Peri is to be hanged. The day fixed for the execution is December 26, 1872. Peri seems to take the matter coolly, and says that if he must swing, why, all there is about it, is that he must. When Peri is hanged, this community will be rid of one of the most desperate characters that ever lived in Cook county.

RAFFERTY.—The murderer of policeman O'Malley and Corbett, the wife murderer, both under sentence of death, were granted new trials by the supreme court. Rafferty deserves death as much as Peri, but it is to be presumed that the court considered that he had good cause for granting him a new trial, or they would not have done so.

HEAVY DAMAGES.—An important suit has been pending for more than a year past in the United States Circuit Court, against the Illinois Central, Pittsburgh, Fort Wayne and Chicago, Chicago, Burlington and Quincy, Michigan Central, Michigan Southern, and Chicago and Alton railroads, for infringing on the patent of a machine which is known as Cawood's swing block, used in straightening and removing worn-out rails without re-rolling them. The case came to a close on Friday last by the court awarding the handsome sum of $1,549,725 in damages to the patentee.

THAT CRYSTAL PALACE.—An association, of which some of the wealthiest and most influential gentlemen of this city are members, has been formed for the purpose of erecting a grand crystal palace, in which it is proposed to hold, next season, the greatest industrial exposition ever held in the West. The crystal palace is to be built entirely of iron and glass, and will cost, ground and all, over $300,000. The celebrated architect, W. W. Boyington, is now preparing the plans for this institution, and it is said will lay the result of his labors before the board of directors of the association some time during the next week or ten days. The crystal palace is to be located in the southern district, somewhere near the Illinois stock yards. It is proposed to ex-

PERSONAL.—Our pink-whiskered friend, Ed. F. Sloan, him of the rosyate complexion and Chesterfieldian bearing, called upon THE BULLETIN yesterday. Edward is now doing the passenger agency of the Iron Mountain railroad in that city of splendid views and solemn stillness, Columbus, Kentucky. In good time, with his little carpet-sack, Ed. will make a return pilgrimage to Cairo, and here return the labor of doing nothing for a living, a business in which nearly all the Columbusites are daily engaged.

—G. R. Clark, member of the engineer corps of the Illinois Central railroad company is at the St. Charles.

—The genial Noyes, the circus man, arrived in Cairo yesterday. Genial we call him, and so does everybody else, and he is. A better man never spread a circus canvass in the Mississippi valley. You can bet your bottom dollar on him, and be sure of winning. He is the soul of honor—a downright square-dealing, first-class man. We are absolutely sure, that Charley will have a reserved seat in Kingdom Come, if there is admission to that exhibition for either circus men or newspaper people, who can't resist the impulse to boost a man like him along in the world to good luck and fortune.

MANHATTAN, clerks, or any others who wish to wear fine boots either calf, morocco, kid or patent leather of the very latest style, go to Wm. Ehler's, on Twentieth street. 10 16th.

NEW FLOUR AND FEED STORE.—Wm. Loneragan has opened a flour and feed store in Warden's new building, on Commercial avenue. He is selling the choicest brands of Cairo City mills flour at the mill prices. He has also for sale, in large or small quantities, bran, hay, corn, oats, etc. Loneragan is entitled to a liberal share of the public patronage, which we hope he may receive. 11-16-1w.

NOTICE TO BUILDERS.—Sealed proposals will be received by the undersigned for the erection of a brick building, to be built on Washington avenue near Twelfth street, until Monday the 21st inst., at 6 o'clock p.m. Bids will be received for the material and finishing the entire building, or for brick and brick work complete and carpenter work, lumber and hardware complete, and for plastering and materials, and for painting. Mrs. ANNA LANG. Eighth street, between Commercial and Washington avenues, has just received a large and varied stock of fall goods, and desires to call particular attention to her handsome assortment of ladies' and children's underwear, something new and the most comfortable thing for children in cold weather ever devised. Mrs. Lang also has a well selected assortment of hats, bonnets, ribbons, flowers, and notions of all sorts, all of which will be sold as cheap as can be found elsewhere in this market. 10-9-1m.

Nobody denies that if you would have oysters by the plate, stewed, fried, roasted raw or on the half-shell, by the dozen, can or barrel, there is only one place in the city where you can get the freshest, juiciest and best. That place by common consent is the Thalia Oyster saloon, at the corner of Twelfth street and Washington avenue, and while there, if you should chance to call for a glass of St. Louis lager; a glass of wine, native or foreign, or something of a stronger kind, your own good taste will testify that Jaackel keeps the best. Then go to the Thalia, call for what you want to eat or drink, and if you are not more than satisfied, everybody will say that you must charge your dissatisfaction to your own depraved taste. 10-15-4 3m.

SKINKING IS BELIEVING.—If ladies who do not use the fragrant Soudard will compare teeth with those who do, they will see in an instant, more reasons for adopting it, than can be composed into a newspaper paragraph. 11-17 d&wlv.

AS LOCUSTS.—The Charter Oak Stores are becoming such universal favorites and are making their way into so many households, that it looks as if they were destined to cover the face of the lands as the locusts of Egypt. Unlike them, however, they are blessings instead of plagues, and we wish speed to the consummation. 11-16d&wlv.
